

Fytexia nominated for the “Export Trophy Award 2010”

Fytexia has recently participated to the “Export Trophy Award 2010”, an initiative from the French Chamber of Commerce of the Languedoc-Roussillon region (Sud de France).

This big event was organized in May and 34 companies have submitted a file in 5 different categories. Among all these companies, Fytexia has been nominated in the “Grand Export” category. We are proud of this nomination which shows the importance of our activities all over the world.
